

CENTRE COLLEGE HONORS ATTORNEY
WITH ALUMNI AWARD

Recognized as Centre Associate of the Year for 2007

LEXINGTON, KY, February 12, 2007 – Stoll Keenon Ogden is pleased to announce that Anita M. Britton was recently named the Centre College Associate of the Year for 2007. The annual award is given in recognition of a Centre supporter who has donated extraordinary time and resources to the college located in Danville, Kentucky. Anita graduated in 1976 before earning her J.D. at the University of Kentucky College of Law in 1982.

Ms. Britton practices Family Law as a member of the Firm and has chaired the Family Law Practice Section of the Kentucky Bar Association. During the award ceremony, Anita was recognized as being “an exceptional volunteer for the College, serving several terms on the National Alumni Association Board of Directors, and most recently, as president of the Association.” Anita is also actively involved in the community, having been past president of both the Lexington Humane Society and the Kiwanis Club. She served as the inaugural chair of Bluegrass Women United and as president of the Lexington affiliate of the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Research Foundation. Anita has also served as past president of the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO). NAWBO honored her with their Winners Circle Award in 2005.
